

PROJECT motivate

At its annual summer event, Project Motivate inspires hundreds of dance teachers to succeed.

For the first time ever, we're inviting you to share your products and your expertise with them, and be inspired yourself.

July 27-30, 2006

(Exhibit days: July 28-29)

Boston Park Plaza Hotel

Please join us as an exhibitor, and allow us to share not only your products, but your knowledge and perspective at roundtable and panel discussions, and as part of the seminar sessions.

Unlike any event you've ever participated in, the exhibits at

Project Motivate will be located in the seminar hall. You'll be able to listen to what teachers are saying, and perhaps be called upon to lend your expertise about the issues at hand.

Only a limited number of booths will be accepted, so register today!

What is Project Motivate?

Started in 1997 by Rhee Gold, Project Motivate is unique in the field of dance in that attendees walk away with a renewed passion for the art of dance, increased self-awareness, and the confidence to meet new challenges.

Project Motivate sparks ideas and leads teachers and school owners in directions they may never have considered. Together the focus is on what's most important to the future—for their business, their classroom, and their personal lives, in one entertaining, informative seminar.
